

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

May 24, 2018

The Honorable Gary Palmer
U.S. House of Representatives
330 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Palmer:

Thank you for your letter requesting a list of guidance documents issued by the Federal Communications Commission since January 1, 2008.

The FCC's Enforcement Bureau has issued Enforcement Advisories, which are concise notices designed to educate stakeholders about the requirements of the FCC's rules, the purpose of those rules, as well as the consequences of failure to comply. The first Enforcement Advisory was issued in 2010. The Bureau has also published guidance in Public Notices. A complete list of Public Notices and Enforcement Advisories is available here:

https://transition.fcc.gov/eb/Public_Notices/.

Since 2016, the Bureau's Office of the Field Director has issued occasional Advisory Notices that remind spectrum users about the requirements in the Commission's rules, actions that must be taken to comply with the rules, and the consequences of failure to comply.

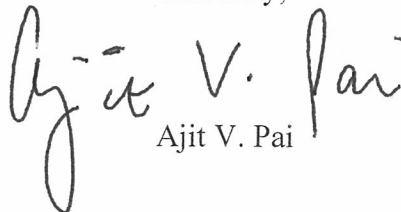

Advisory Notices generally address only spectrum-based issues that affect fewer licensees or users, or are limited in geographic scope. Here is a link to the list of Advisory Notices:

<https://www.fcc.gov/eb-fieldadvis>.

Pursuant to Section 212 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, the Commission—through the Office of Communications Business Opportunities—publishes small entity compliance guides. The compliance guides explain to small entities, in plain language, what the FCC requires of them with respect to complying with new rules. The guides further the FCC's goal of promoting competition and its efforts to respond to the needs of small businesses, which are an integral part of the economy. Here is a link to the list of these documents: <https://www.fcc.gov/general/compliance-guides-small-businesses>.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Ajit V. Pai
